

MY OCTOBER WRITING ADVENTURE

20 DAYS OF DRAWING, NEW WORDS AND SENTENCES FOR KIDS

October is full of things to notice: changing leaves, cooler mornings, busy animals, and colorful celebrations. This daily journal gives young writers one small idea to explore each day.

Read the question together and let your child say their answer aloud. Then invite them to draw a picture, choose two or three useful words, and write one sentence. On a guided page, they can trace the beginning first. On a blank page, they can create their own beginning. The sentence ideas below are examples to personalize with their own names, places, and experiences.

Goal: Help children turn spoken ideas into complete sentences, try new vocabulary, and build confidence in their writing. At the end of each page, check for a capital letter, spaces between words, and an ending mark.
